Neel Patel, Associate Justice, was born in Queens, New York, quickly building up an impressive career in lower Manhattan. He exploited any means necessary to build his “Twin Patel Towers” and generate revenue in the stock market, perfecting the Art of the Deal with fellow crypto, gold and stock investors. Unpredictable, but a conservative-grounded mind, he aims to exploit a working mutual agreement between all parties, be it in Russia, China or America. In June 2025, he was nominated by Donald Trump to the Supreme Court in place of a liberal justice whose resignation was forced. Patel brings unpredictability and seismic uncertainty to the justice system.
